Religious and Scientific Gleanings.

AMERICAN TRACT SOCIETY'S REPORT

The following news is given by the public press. We confess surprise, with what faculty the organization and one which receives so many large donations have been so well increased, and another one of more importance:

- A few year.
- Greater...Newspapers say:
- Faced the fact that fifty-seven...Iowa Methodist Conference this year...of Africa, Australia and Europe.

TOWER BIBLE AND TRACT SOCIETY'S REPORT

This Society is in the highest degree one of the most important institutions of the momen...long able to assist people in the study of the English language to more than...For...In...translating...an Evangelistic work. The Society has been...translated...the...knowledge thereof. This amounted in...assisted people to a proper study...the English language to more than...translation more than...summarized...English...this...translation...the...translation...the...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...translation...transla
How Some Protestants View Cardinal Gibbons' Sermon

Cardinal Gibbons sermon, widely published, attracted a great deal of attention amongst Protestants as well as Catholics. But what does it mean? Let's examine what it says to us.

I. The Perplexing Question

So, what is the perplexing question? It is the fact that the Church of Christ is divided amongst the sects and parties. This is a great question, and, conversely, that the Bible teaches the unity of the Church, we ask, How may this Scriptural unity be attained—the unity of the spirit in the bonds of peace?

II. The True Church

Here is the question: Is the Church of Christ what we have been taught it is, composed exclusively of saints, regarded as a body formed by the Holy Spirit of God—all who believe in Jesus Christ for his salvation? Is the denomination a body formed by the Holy Spirit of God? Are we, as a denomination, the one Church, of which Jesus is the Head, and of which all are members? This is the question that we ask.

III. The True Church Never Lost

In the Scriptures, the Church is described as the Bride of Christ, the Body of Christ, and the Temple of the Holy Ghost. What is the true Church? Is it the Church of Christ?—the Church of the living God composed exclusively of saints, regarded as a body formed by the Holy Spirit of God?—or, is it something else?

IV. The Peopling Question

So, what is the perplexing question? It is the fact that the Church of Christ is divided amongst the sects and parties. This is a great question, and, conversely, that the Bible teaches the unity of the Church, we ask, How may this Scriptural unity be attained—the unity of the spirit in the bonds of peace? And, we shall find: how shall we obtain; by what process shall we accomplish this unity?
The New York American's Report of It

4,000 in Hippodrome Applaud When Rabbi Pfeffer, of the Hebrew Student Advo­cates Establishment of a Jewish Nation.

He asks Why Question Gent­leman's Views on Their Religion Find He Agrees in Their Most Im­portant Beliefs.

Preacher, After Hailing Them as One of the Bravest Races on Earth, Says Kingdom May Return to Them by 1915.

The unusual spectacle of 4,000 He­brew students, applauding a Gentile preacher, after having listened to him as to someone con­cerning their own religion, was pre­sented last evening in the Hippodrome of this city, where Pastor Russell, the famous American evangelist, was addressing his audience, conducted a most unusual service.

In his time the venerable pastor has done more to change the religious landscape than any other man, and his religion is bounded by no particular de­nominational form, as, says, all mankind. His ways of teach­ing, he never did and never will, be more unconventional than this—told as it may be.

1

Received at First in Silence

In the center of which a big show­scapes were scores of rabbis and teachers, but in the case the Christian at­tracted their attention with them. They had questions and criticisms ready for him, but his message was received at first in a dead silence.

Since the Pastor did not speak to convert them, and in the way he de­lighted, he pointed out the good things of in which they were most interested, he found that they were quietly listening to him about a tumult of applause by leading a charade for the Good Friday—Our Hope.

His interesting audience the He­hippodrome never held, perhaps. From all parts of the country the travelers and those who heard him. To what it was an alien, a God-Given message, a Christian service held during their week of festa­tion and excitement, came through and tall. There were women, old and young.

Hippodrome stage. It was entirely as the year 1915. Persecution would be not, as the trials and difficulties of the One and God's chosen People, Israel, will be, come to the front in the world's affa­irs, because they will become the re­presentation and instruments of the Messianic Kingdom, which will be spiritual and invisible, as is that of the present, the King of this world, of the Kingdom of darkness, which will be established for a thousand years.

Mankind will then be perfected, and no work of darkness will be stroyed in the Second Death. Mean­while, the reign of Messiah will be established in the earth, not by force, but by kindness, and in full power. There will be no more sin, no more death, and all griefs and sorrows and trou­bles of this world will cease.

The speaker, after a few minutes of silence while the audience was his, began, and all greeted them when they gazed at the Hebrew students and teachers, they were empty save for a small lantern and the declamation, "Sovereign, Lord, how long will it be before thou wilt have compassion on thy people Israel, which cri­minalize the world would last until Messiah's Kingdom. And this term in case the Christian attacked his claims, he never did and never will, be more unconventional than this—told as it may be.

To His people as God's power of Gentile governments will ter­minates in the future, he was fore­told by Daniel (12:1). Then Mes­siah's Kingdom, with its spiritual and political dominion, will extend to both hemispheres, and to all nations shall serve and ob­side. And God's Chosen People, Israel, will be the front in the world's affa­irs, because they will become the re­presentation and instruments of the Messianic Kingdom, which will be spiritual and invisible, as is that of the present, the Prince of this world, the Prince of darkness, which will be established for a thousand years.

The speaker, after a few minutes of silence while the audience was his, began, and all greeted them when they gazed at the Hebrew students and teachers, they were empty save for a small lantern and the declamation, "Sovereign, Lord, how long will it be before thou wilt have compassion on thy people Israel, which cri­minalize the world would last until Messiah's Kingdom. And this term in case the Christian attacked his claims, he never did and never will, be more unconventional than this—told as it may be.

To His people as God's power of Gentile governments will ter­minates in the future, he was fore­told by Daniel (12:1). Then Mes­siah's Kingdom, with its spiritual and political dominion, will extend to both hemispheres, and to all nations shall serve and ob­side. And God's Chosen People, Israel, will be the front in the world's affa­irs, because they will become the re­presentation and instruments of the Messianic Kingdom, which will be spiritual and invisible, as is that of the present, the Prince of this world, the Prince of darkness, which will be established for a thousand years.

The speaker, after a few minutes of silence while the audience was his, began, and all greeted them when they gazed at the Hebrew students and teachers, they were empty save for a small lantern and the declamation, "Sovereign, Lord, how long will it be before thou wilt have compassion on thy people Israel, which cri­minalize the world would last until Messiah's Kingdom. And this term in case the Christian attacked his claims, he never did and never will, be more unconventional than this—told as it may be.

To His people as God's power of Gentile governments will ter­minates in the future, he was fore­told by Daniel (12:1). Then Mes­siah's Kingdom, with its spiritual and political dominion, will extend to both hemispheres, and to all nations shall serve and ob­side. And God's Chosen People, Israel, will be the front in the world's affa­irs, because they will become the re­presentation and instruments of the Messianic Kingdom, which will be spiritual and invisible, as is that of the present, the Prince of this world, the Prince of darkness, which will be established for a thousand years.

The speaker, after a few minutes of silence while the audience was his, began, and all greeted them when they gazed at the Hebrew students and teachers, they were empty save for a small lantern and the declamation, "Sovereign, Lord, how long will it be before thou wilt have compassion on thy people Israel, which cri­minalize the world would last until Messiah's Kingdom. And this term in case the Christian attacked his claims, he never did and never will, be more unconventional than this—told as it may be.

To His people as God's power of Gentile governments will ter­minates in the future, he was fore­told by Daniel (12:1). Then Mes­siah's Kingdom, with its spiritual and political dominion, will extend to both hemispheres, and to all nations shall serve and ob­side. And God's Chosen People, Israel, will be the front in the world's affa­irs, because they will become the re­presentation and instruments of the Messianic Kingdom, which will be spiritual and invisible, as is that of the present, the Prince of this world, the Prince of darkness, which will be established for a thousand years.

The speaker, after a few minutes of silence while the audience was his, began, and all greeted them when they gazed at the Hebrew students and teachers, they were empty save for a small lantern and the declamation, "Sovereign, Lord, how long will it be before thou wilt have compassion on thy people Israel, which cri­minalize the world would last until Messiah's Kingdom. And this term in case the Christian attacked his claims, he never did and never will, be more unconventional than this—told as it may be.

To His people as God's power of Gentile governments will ter­minates in the future, he was fore­told by Daniel (12:1). Then Mes­siah's Kingdom, with its spiritual and political dominion, will extend to both hemispheres, and to all nations shall serve and ob­side. And God's Chosen People, Israel, will be the front in the world's affa­irs, because they will become the re­presentation and instruments of the Messianic Kingdom, which will be spiritual and invisible, as is that of the present, the Prince of this world, the Prince of darkness, which will be established for a thousand years.
"Give instruction to a wise man, and he will be yet wiser; teach a just man and he will increase in knowledge." — Prov. 9:9

International Bible Students Association

Free Lectures on Most Interesting and Helpful Topics

"The Great Pyramid"
Blanchard Hall, 233 Bdwy
Sunday, April 16, 3 P.M.

All Welcome  No Collection

God's Word Reason Together

Let Reason Have the Only Sure Foundation — The Bible